Final Project Presentations

Adam Meyers
Montclair State University
Project Time Line

• Project Proposal
  – Due November 17

• Project Talk
  – Max of 15 minutes + 5 min for questions
    • Suggested Number of Slides 10-15
  – Presented on December 1 or 8 (last 2 classes)
    • Please email me your preference

• Final Project Report Due
  – December 15
Purpose of Presentations

• Getting Feedback on Your Ideas before the final paper is due
• Final Papers → Research Papers   as Final Presentations → Conference Presentations
Paper Presented at LREC 2014

• One of my recent conference presentations
  – Representative, not best or worst of my papers
• LREC
  – Language Resources and Evaluation
    • Conference focuses on
      – Resources: Annotation, Lexicons, etc.
      – Evaluation: methods of evaluation
• Acceptance rate approx 67%
  – Not sure what the poster/talk breakdown is
• High Acceptance Rate Compared to Other NLP Confs
  – Others tend to be 30-50% depending
• Large Attendance Compared to Other NLP Confs
• Lots of Poster Sessions
Meta View of the Paper

• Ingredients
  – Defining the problem
  – Evaluation Issues
  – Putting the work in context
    • Previous work
    • Applications it is relevant to
    • Other work in NLP
• The talk discusses flaws in the overall approach
  – It attempts to deal with some of them
  – Dealing with others is left to future work